

Alaska Section, American Water Resources Association

2024 Annual Conference
April 1-3, Pike's Landing, Fairbanks AK

The Alaska Section, AWRA is excited to announce our hybrid 2024 Annual Conference!

AWRA's mission is to advance multidisciplinary water resources education, management, and research. Our annual conference is an opportunity for collaboration among physical, biological, and social scientists, engineers, and students concerned with water resource research, planning, development, management, and education.

When: April 1-3, 2024

Where: Pike's Waterfront Lodge (<https://pikeslodge.com/>) - 1850 Hoselton Rd, Fairbanks, AK

- Pike's Waterfront Lodge has reserved a block of rooms for all conference attendees at discounted rate of $129/night, plus 8% tax. Please use code term AWRA when reserving.

Abstract Submission: <https://forms.gle/exSzv81TFiLk9i3a7>

Conference Webpage: <https://ak-awra.org/ameetings/2024am/>

Registration: <https://ak-awra.org/ameetings/2024am/registration.shtml>

Proposed Sessions for 15-minute talks, poster sessions, and rapid talks:

- Climate Change and Water Resources
- Coastal Hydrology/Processes
- Geospatial Data & Modeling/Hydrography
- Glacial Processes/Cryosphere Hydrology
- Habitat - Fish, Wildlife, and Aquatic Species (stream restoration, protection, fish passage)
- Hazards (floods, landslides)
- Hydropower (including hydrokinetic)
- Tribal Water Resources
- Water Management (surface water, groundwater, navigability, regulations)
- Water Quality and Drinking Water/Wastewater
- Water Resources Education/Communication, Social Impacts
- Weather and Water Extremes (typhoons, atmospheric rivers, droughts, etc)
- Other Related Topics

Follow us on LinkedIn & Facebook for more updates and information!